

BACKGROUND CHECKS

by Trusted Employees

Every organization wants to hire responsible and trustworthy staff and volunteers. This is done best by including background checks in your hiring and employment processes. Church Mutual highly recommends that you and your organization conduct background checks for all positions involving children, the elderly, vulnerable populations, money or transportation prior to any job offer. It is also recommended that you and your organization complete background checks on an annual basis to capture any changes that might affect your employee's or volunteer's eligibility for employment.

*Church Mutual's recommended partner
